

The Daily Courant

Tuesday, December 6 1726.

London, December 6

On Sunday Night late arrived a Mail from Holland, and Yesterday one from Flanders.

Stockholm, November 16.

Lieutenant Colonel Amnicoff has been sent to Revel with several Muscovite Prisoners in order to have exchanged them for a like Number of Swedes; but he is returned hither very much dissatisfied, because the Muscovites would not admit him to land, neither would they receive the Money he carried for the Ransom of other Swedish Prisoners in Muscovy. On the 13th Instant the King set out with a few Attendants from this City to Novo, to divert himself with hunting; he designed to proceed afterwards to Ekolfond, and is expected to return hither this Evening. Count Meyerfeld's Departure for Pomerania is not fixed, although the Regiment of Beler is already sailed for Carelskroon to take Possession of Stralsund.

Copenhagen, Nov. 30. The Queen is perfectly recovered from her late Indisposition, and her Majesty appears in public almost every Day. The foreign Ministers residing here are most of them repaired to Fredericksbourg to Compliment the Court on account of the Prince Royal's Birth Day. A very strict Placard is published here, forbidding Entrance at the Ports of this Kingdom to all Ships coming from suspected Places situated on the Mediterranean or Baltic Seas.

Hambourg Dec. 3. Our Magistrates have issued proper Orders for preventing Persons entering this City who come from Places suspected of the Plague; and likewise to turn out all idle Persons, Beggars, Vagabonds, and Gamblers at unlawful Plays. The Chief of the Burghers are to visit all the Houses in the City, to take Lists of the Names of all Strangers, describing their Abodes, and Occupations; hoping by this Method to get rid of many Gaming Vagabonds who lye in wait to seduce Youth. It is reported, that the Duke of Mecklenbourg Swerin is arrived at Dantz from the Imperial Court, where he had been for some time past.

Cadix, Nov. 13. The Ships from Buenos Ayres, Vera-Cruz, and Cariagena, are not yet arrived here; but are daily expected. The late Prohibition of Commerce with France is executed here with the utmost Exactness: A Ship from Dunkirk was some time ago obliged to stop at a good Distance off our Bay, upon which the Merchants concerned have dispatched an Express to Madrid. In the Ordinance which commands the Prohibition of Commerce on Account of the Plague at Marseilles, are contained severe Penalties to such of the Inhabitants of this City who shall presume to convey to their Houses, or other Places, any Persons or Effects coming from France: Such of the Nobility as shall contravene this Order, are to pay 1000 Ducats Fine, and to remain in Banishment 10 Years in Africa: Persons of inferior Rank are to receive 200 Lashes from the Hands of the Hangman, to pay 1000 Ducats Fine, and to be sent likewise for 10 Years to the Gallies.

Madrid, Nov. 26. Sig. Aldobrandini having been to wait upon their Catholic Majesties at the Elcurial, is returned to this City, and is to reside here in Quality of Nuncio from the Pope. On the 24th Instant a solemn Service was performed here according to Custom, in the Imperial College of the Jesuits, for the Repose of the Souls of deceased Officers and Soldiers: Father Manuel Martia performed the Funeral Service. Letters from Lisbon of the 7th Instant say, that great Rejoicings had been made at that Court on the Anniversary Feast of St. Charles Borromeo, whose Name the Emperour bears, as does also the young Prince Don Carlos, who begins to recover from a late Indisposition of 3 Months continuance. Letters from Corunna of the 26th Instant say, that Ship which some time ago put into that Port from the West Indies, was sailed towards Cadix, under Convey of 2 Men of War. Advice from the Frontier of Portugal gives an Account, that the Officers belonging to the Tribunal of the Inquisition have caused several Jews, their Wives and Children, to be shut up in Prison, whose Families have many times refused to come out of Prison and pay.

Munich, Nov. 12. The Affairs concerning Religion are still in their former upward Train in the Palatinate. Our Citizens are greatly distressed by the Soldiers of the Garrison here, many of the former having been beaten and imprisoned by the latter. Count de Virmont arrived some time ago at the Court of our Elector at Mannheim, and has received an Account by Express from Vienna, that the Emperour has requested him to be the Governor of Treuburg, vacant by the Death of Count Steinville.

Brussels, Nov. 30. The Colonel of the Regiment of Foot of Wirtemberg, in Garrison at Charleroy, having insulted the Officers in general of the said Regiment, as being unworthy to serve, and reflecting upon them in very injurious Terms; the Officers must therefore either justify themselves or be broke: Upon this Occasion, a Court Martial is appointed to be held at Charleroy, composed of two Colonels, two Lieutenant-Colonels, two Majors, two Captains, two Lieutenants, and four Imperial Commissaries; and General Wrangel is to be President. It is yet uncertain what Sentence the Court will incline to pass, because the Case is somewhat extraordinary, and happens seldom; but the general Opinion is, either the Colonel or the Officers must be broke.

Several Officers belonging to the Imperial Troops are set out from this City for Charleroy, in order to be present at the Court Martial. The Prince of Holstein-Norburg's Regiment of Dragoons is lately passed by this City, coming from Malines, where it has been in Garrison ever since the Sedition; it is now ordered to march to the Frontiers of the Duchy of Luxembourg, upon account of the Plague, there to guard the Passages, and prevent Persons coming from the French Territories to enter the Dominions of his Imperial Majesty. High Masses are said almost every other Day, in Honour of St. Roque, that God may preserve this Country from the Contagion. On the 23d Instant, the States of Brabant caused their Mass to be accompanied by fine Choral Musick, on the same Occasion, in the Church of St. Godelux, where all the Deputies of the Province were present; and the Abbé de Grimberg officiated pontifically. The Magistrates of this City have also caused the like Devotions to be observed in St. Nicolas's Church for 5 Days successively.

The Lord Viscount Barrington, and other English Gentlemen, passed through this City on the 24th Instant, on their Return from Hanover, designing to proceed by the Way of Calais to Great-Britain.

Cologne, Dec. 6. Several Prussian Officers are arrived here to raise Recruits. Our Elector entering Yesterday in his 49th Year, that Anniversary was nobly celebrated at Bon; and his Electoral Highness received on that Occasion many Compliments from all Persons of Distinction in this City. The Diet of the States of Bergh and Juliers, lately held at Dusseldorp, has been ended some time since, and the Deputies who composed that Assembly are returned home.

Paris, Dec. 11. On the 7th Instant, the King paid a Visit to the Dutchess of Orleans, who was that Day returned from St. Cloud; the same Day his Majesty visited the Dutchess of Hanover. Count Guiscard, Lieutenant-General, and Knight of the Order of the Holy Ghost, died lately at his Government of Sedou. The Officers belonging to the Regiments in Garrison at Fontarabia and St. Sebastian, are all ordered to repair to their respective Posts.

Post. A List of the Spanish Forces on the present Establishment is handed about here, mentioning 138 Battalions, 24 Regiments of Horse, and 21 Regiments of Dragoons. It is currently reported, that the Reform that was some time ago proposed to be made in our Troops, is countermanded. On the 28th of the last Month, a certain Italian, who styles himself the Chevalier Damer, was seized in his Coach. People reason differently concerning his Crime; some say 'tis for having sold false Bank-Bills; whatever it be, it is certain this Person has of late made a most extraordinary Figure in this City, kept a noble Table, and an Equipage superior to any belonging to an Ambassador. Cardinal Polignac arrived here Yesterday from his Abby of Danetien, where he has resided ever since the Affair relating to the Duke and Dutchess of Maine. Although an Arrêt has been published, annulling Bills of 1000 Livres, and prohibiting under a Penalty of 3000 Livres their being offered in Payment, they are publicly negotiated here notwithstanding. The Actions sealed with a second Seal, are at 4000 Livres; Bills of 200 Livres at 12, and the small ones in Proportion. The cutting of those of 1000 Livres is at 160; the current Accomps in Bank gain 34 Livres against Bills of 1000; the Annuity Actions lose 35 Livres against the Bills of the Bank, the Mark of Gold is at 1000 Livres in Paper.

Dartmouth, Dec. 2. This Evening sailed the Italian Galley for Leghorne, and the Rose Galley from Yarmouth for Venice, both laden with Herrings. All the rest of the outward-bound Ships are still here.

Bristol, Dec. 3. This Morning arrived the Nancy from Philadelphia.

Deal, Dec. 3. The Six King's Ships sailed this Morning to the Westward, and the outward-bound are also preparing to sail. Since came down the Dispatch for Guiney, and the Severn for Maryland. The Kent Mail due this Day is not yet arrived.

John Marshall, Maker of Optick Glasses to his Majesty.
At the Archimides in Ludgate-street, Lon-don, having by long Experience observed that abundance of Peoples Sight is spoiled by using false Spectacles sold by Toy-men and other ignorant Persons. To prevent which, he doth set the Age on the Frames for every one to know the Sight they wear; for it often happens, that a Person of 30 takes Spectacles of 60 or 70, to the spoiling of their Sight, whereas if the Age had been known by the Buyer, he would not have used them. By the use of true Spectacles the Sight is much preserved, so that many Persons of 60 or 70 Years of Age, can on occasion read without them. Also Reading Glasses and Spectacles of Rock Crystal, as well as Glass, Microscopes, Telescopes, and all other Optick Glasses, made to the exact Perfection by him who is the only Person approved of by the Royal Society for the Art of Glass Grinding. John Marshall.
